

3.6 Mile Circular Walk via Church Road Daltons Road Harvest Fields Savill Row South Tunnel Gables and Darns Hill

This walk offers good views (especially of sunsets) of the City and Docklands Skyline from the track between Gables and Darns Hill.

From the Village Hall proceed towards the shops then turn left into Eynsford Road then right into Church Road at the end of the road continue round and go up Daltons Road.

At the end of the house turn left up the track and then right through the gate into Harvest Fields. Proceed to the end of the play area then bear right then left then turn right at the end along the hedgerow. Cross the track go down through the gateway and up pass the poly tunnels (on your left).

Take the path across the field towards the M25 and then turn right along Savill Row (named after a founder member of ECROW). Continue until the road bends to go under the M25 and climb the steps on the right-hand side at the top take the footpath round to the right between the hedgerow and the poly tunnels. Cross the track and continue on the path with the hedge on your right-hand side.

When you reach Daltons Rd crossover and continue on the track pass the Gables and then continue round to the right (at Watts Gates) down the track until you reach Darns Hill continue on until the junction with Tylers Green Road cross the road and take the footpath between the house to Old Chapel Rd then left back to the village centre.

Crockenhill from the Gables

Docklands and Shooters Hill from Darns Hill

Sunset over London from Darns Hill